Notable Lecture.
The members of the Woman's Club and their guests enjoyed a notable lecture in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium, last evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McClurg, of Colorado Springs, Col., gave their descriptive talk on "Colorado, and the Cliff-Dwellers."

Mrs. McClurg had the first division of the lecture, her subject being "The Columbian Colorado." She spoke of ruins and evidences of a civilized race as ancient as even to antedate Jamestown, as she playfully said. The ruins of the cliff-dwellers' houses, their method of weaving, which has been handed down to their descendants, the Pueblo Indians, and the distinctive symbols which prove their kinship to ancient Eastern peoples, were all shown in interesting detail and explained in simple yet graceful phrase.

Mr. McClurg took up the history of the State from the time of the first settlers who crossed the prairies in the prairie schooner.

The natural beauties of Colorado—or "colored land"—were shown in colored scenes of great beauty. Pike's Peak, the Mountain of the Holy Cross, and other mountains, valleys and waterfalls were pictured on the screen, while Mr. McClurg told charming bits of legendary lore and authentic history.

The audience applauded frequently in appreciation of the real interest and beauty of the lecture.

Informal Reception.
Mr. and Mrs. McClurg were guests of honor at an informal but altogether pleasant reception in the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon.

The officers of the club received and the members were delighted to entertain two of the most charming guests who have visited the club this season.

Mrs. Edward Palmer and Miss Deane served coffee. Mrs. Spilman, assisted by Miss Kate Winston, poured tea.

Among the week's guests at the club are: Mrs. J. P. Biedgett, of Providence, R. I.; Mrs. N. E. Laches, of Louisville, Ky.; and Mrs. B. F. Myers, of Duluth, Minn.

Delightful Dance.
The History and Education Building at the Jamestown Exposition was the scene of a brilliant hop on Friday evening last.

The hall was beautifully decorated with flags, and music was furnished by the Second Squadron Band of the United States Navy and the band from Fort Monroe, playing alternately. Position was master of ceremonies, and those receiving were Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Alva H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Cummings, Lieutenant Bagby, United States Army, and Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd.

Among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton Vaughan, Miss Page Aylett Royall, Misses Hattie and Lina Shields, and Mr. Thomas Branch McAdams, all of Richmond; Miss Grizzell Mullen, of Petersburg; Miss Theodosia Hand, of New York; Miss Florence Reid, of Baltimore; Miss Nancy Browne, of Washington; Miss Octavia Thompson, of Summit Point, and Miss Mary Meares Galt, of Baltimore.

In addition to a large number of officers from American ships, the following from foreign vessels stationed in Hampton Roads were also present: Dr. Gordon, Lieutenant Brougham, Lieutenant Betty and Midshipman Swan and W. P. Emory, of the British Navy; Lieutenant Wilson, of the British Marines; Lieutenant Koch, Lieutenant Throckmorton, Lieutenant Notin and Lieutenant Ellis, of the German Navy; Lieutenant Aray, Lieutenant Castane and Lieutenant Kertorch, of the Austrian Navy, and the officers from the ship Argyle, of the German ship Bremen and the Argentine Republic ship Saimento.

SECRETARY OWEN RECOGNIZES CROOK

Former Convict Was at Governor's Reception in Evening Dress.

Governor Swanson's private secretary, Mr. Ben P. Owen, Jr., killed the prospects of one notorious crook for successful operations at the Jamestown Exposition by recognizing and "spotting" John Henshaw, a former convict, at the Governor's reception at the Exposition Grounds last Thursday night.

Mr. Owen says although the man served his five-year term in the Virginia penitentiary for burglary over twenty years ago, he recognized him the moment his eyes fell upon him. There were about 5,000 people at the reception, and Henshaw appeared in full evening dress at an opportune time, when the Virginia Building was crowded.

"I first saw the man," said Mr. Owen yesterday, "in the Maryland Building, and was quite certain I had seen him before. I did not get a fair look at him, however, until later, when he appeared in the Virginia Building. Then it all came to me. When I was a newspaper reporter Henshaw, then quite a young man, served a term for burglary. From the time he was released, some twenty years ago, I had never laid eyes on him until Thursday night. When he came into the Virginia Building he seemed to be closely eyeing a richly-jeweled lady of the Connecticut party. I asked Henshaw what on earth he was doing at the reception, and he asked me not to say anything about seeing him, and he would leave at once. He did leave, and I lost sight of him from that moment."

The police have their eyes open for the former convict, along with others of his class, who always follow large public gatherings.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.
Night Schools to End Session.
Use of Marshall Mansion.

The Night and Marshall Night Schools will close for the session this week. Both have been very well attended at times, but, as usual, the attendance dwindled perceptibly as the session progressed.

The School Board now has custody of the John Marshall House, but will not be able to occupy it until September, when the lease of the present tenant expires. The building will be used as a school library and office building as soon as it can be equipped for those purposes.

House Burned.

JURY'S VERDICT FOR CAR COMPANY

Brothers Arrested at Skating Rink Lose in Suit in Henrico.

The Henrico Circuit Court heard yesterday the suits of Winston W. and Samuel B. Goodman against the receivers of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company. The two brothers were arrested by a special officer of the company for fast skating on that rink at Idlewood one evening last March. They claim that they were removed from the rink without cause, and that their reputations and standing in the community were damaged by the arrest to the amount of $5,000 each. H. R. and R. M. Pollard represented the Goodmans, and Mr. Henry Taylor handled the case for the company.

The brothers showed that they had been acquitted of the charge of disorderly conduct when their case came before a Henrico magistrate. After hearing a number of witnesses the jury found for the car company in both cases.

Hearing Postponed.

The case of Robert and Willie Weiss, father and son, of Henrico county, who were arrested on a charge of horse-stealing, was postponed until Saturday by Squire Tiller at the court-house yesterday, on account of the absence of Commonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg, who was in the Circuit Court.

Mr. Gilbert K. Pollock was present, representing the Weisses. The Weiss family recently moved into Henrico from Wisconsin, and make the defense that the two alleged stolen horses were sold to them by some unscrupulous stranger. They made no effort to conceal the animals, which were being openly used on their place when found. A number of cases of horse-stealing have stirred up the lower end of the county, and there was a considerable attendance to hear the trial of the case.

Magistrate Out Again.

Magistrate Myer Angle, of Henrico county, who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, was at the courthouse again yesterday receiving the congratulations of his friends and hearing several small cases.

Cleveland Kersey, Arthur Foster and John Mitchell were fined $2.50 each for cursing Mrs. M. L. Richardson, a boarding-house keeper on the Darbytown Road. A charge of shooting at pistol on the public highway cost Kersey $2.50 additional.
